

By Amber Hanneken

Staff Writer

The unofficial results are in for county school board elections.

Fort Towson was a close race with Tim Carter winning by just 15 votes.

In Boswell's four-way race, John Kerr took the most votes while incumbent Ron Pickard had the least.

Incumbent Chris Scott received the winning vote in Grant's school board election.

In other districts, candidates ran unopposed. Shawn Scott will remain on Soper's board and Brad Greer will remain on Hugo's board. Carolyn Hill will be on Goodland's board. In Swink, Albert L. Swink and John W. Davis will be members of the school board.

Results are listed as unofficial until Friday, Feb. 12, by which time provisional ballots should be counted.

Find out how many votes each candidate received, subscribe to the online edition: <http://www.hugonews.com/transitionHDN.html>