HUGO — Charges have been filed against four individuals in connection with the Friday drug raid on a residence in the 300 block of North H Street.

Nikki Leigh Gentry, Karmen Dean Richey, Cheri Rae Clark and Sedrick Moltke Frierson all received felony charges Monday afternoon.

Officers with the Hugo Police Department developed information that narcotics were being held at a residence on H Street. The police report states a search warrant was subsequently obtained based on the information. Officers forced entry into the residence and detained the four individuals. During the search, the report said, multiple substances believed to be methamphetamine were located and all four individuals were booked into the Choctaw County Jail. One vehicle was seized for forfeiture.
