HUGO — The Ebenezer Missionary Baptist will be celebrating the installation of their new pastor, the Rev. Reginald Paul Hooks at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 23.

The Rev. Larry Hooks, brother to Reginald Hooks, will be a guest at the 11 a.m. service. He will bring the sermon. Doris Dorsey — mother of the Hooks brothers, Lester Jackson, Mekia Jackson, Phylis Jackson and Cynthia Hooks will also be guests.

Guests for the afternoon include the Rev. Ronald Boyd, pastor of the Antioch Missionary Baptist Convention of Oklahoma, Duncan, Okla., and president of the General Missionary Baptist Convention of Oklahoma, the St. Stephens Baptist Church of Duncan, friends and relatives from the Tatum, Okla. and Oklahoma City area. The Rev. Boyd will bring the sermon.

Hooks is making a special appeal to past, present and future members to join in the ceremony and help celebrate God's blessing being showered upon the Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church. The public is invited.